

REMARKS

In order to circumvent the objection to the lack of support in the specification, claim 1 as originally filed is simply inserted into the specification. Thus, at least the Section 112 rejection cannot be maintained.

In view of these remarks, the application should be in condition for allowance. The statements made distinguishing the cited art in previous responses are hereby incorporated herein as if fully set forth.

Respectfully submitted,

Date: June 22, 2005
